

InterMotive announces new Engineering Manager

AUBURN, CALIFORNIA – October 5, 2023

InterMotive Vehicle Controls is proud to announce that Erin West has been promoted to the position of Engineering Manager.

West has been with InterMotive for over 12 years. His new responsibilities include overseeing the engineering team and spearheading new product development. He previously worked in the roles of Engineering Supervisor and Lead Engineer.

“I am grateful for the opportunity and excited to take on this new role at InterMotive,” says West.

InterMotive President Greg Schafer adds his approval: “Erin has been an invaluable team member all these years. I’m extremely pleased he’s ready to step up and lead the engineering team into the future.”
